Advisor Instructions

Our office policy is that two no-show appointments will move you to the back of the line for advising — this could mean that you are not able to schedule an appointment until after your enrollment date. Please ensure to cancel appointments as soon in advance as possible, either by logging in to cancel or sending me an email. Please note that if you join a Zoom appointment while driving, you will be immediately asked to reschedule your appointment. If you are unable to meet via Zoom, please send a follow up email as soon as possible letting me know so that we may make alternate plans. Thank you!
